Qiang Huang, Holly Roberts and Independent Study Workshops

The Workshops

Last year we began offering Independent study. Limited to twelve attendees, art colony pre-approval is required prior to registration. Your artistic expression does not have to include paint and canvas to be considered for this workshop. Hugh Williams is again our invited mentor for this program. Critiques will be given upon request. Portfolios or jpegs must be submitted for approval by August 1st. To be included email, waynf@robinsoniron.com.

Holly Roberts returns as one of our most popular guest artist instructors. You may remember Holly from the 2008 studio. Her expertise is mixed media - photography, found objects and paint. She has achieved much recognition in this technique, which guides viewers to contemplate what they feel as much as what they see. She is a recognized artist with the gift of inspiring her students and we welcome her back.
